In Red Dead Redemption 2 story mode, players have the ability to craft a variety of trinkets and mascots that unlock constant perks that can make Arthur's life easier. Things like Health, Endurance and Dead Eye improvements, elevated quality parts harvested from dead animals and so on. Among the items unlocking exclusive perks that can be crafted are Bison Horn Talisman, which requires not only legendary Bison Horn, but also silver earrings and ear shell fragment, one of the most difficult items to get in all story mode. In this guide we will detail where to find the abalone Shell Fragment needed to ship the Bison Horn Talisman. The Ununable Shell Fragment Location A paired Deputy Shell Fragment is one of the most unique crafting items in the game because there's only one unit in this item. The item is located on the outskirts of Rhodes, in a house in the northern part of the city. To achieve this, you just need to come north of the city's main road. Once inside the house, look for the workin the end room, located in the southern part of the house and look right to find the abalone Shell Fragment. Crafting Bison Horn Talisman Getting ear Shell Fragment is not enough to ship Bison Horn Talisman as you need the legendary Bison Horn and Silver Earrings. The latter is probably at your disposal already, especially if you have looted your enemy bodies often. To get the horn, however, you must hunt the Legendary White Bison, who is one of the most powerful Legendary Animals in the game. Once you have collected all the items, you can head over to any fence, pay $38.50 and craft a mascot that unlocks a perk that constantly slows down the durability core drain rate by 10 percent.
